Link digest

By Steve Thorngate June 3, 2011

Subscribe to the Century editors' link blogging by feed.

New civil union law in Illinois sparks changes in several religious denominations.

Interesting story about four years spent trying to help poor people get jobs.

Here comes the Paul Ryan presidential campaign.

Urban America's crime drops to lowest in 40 years.

In defense of the church-as-institution.

Ralph Reed at the helm of the religious right, again.

An amusing post about Bible translation debates and terms.