New today from the Century:

- Carol Zaleski on meeting Adam in heaven: "I dreamed of meeting Adam in heaven. He wasn't hard to recognize; he looked like my great-uncle Harold, with the weight of his years melted off."
- Debra Bendis on virtually dependent young adults: "Terry Castle is concerned about students' constant contact with parents. I'm more interested in how they relate face to face."
- Benjamin Webb reviews Robert Bellah (subscription required)
- Steve Thorngate on the most sinister of the NYT's "innovations that will change your tomorrow"
