

Hickory tree vision

by Hannah VanderHart in the October 10, 2018 issue

the closest

I have been

to vision

was a yellow

tree, every leaf

touched

flame, angels,

apparition—

but the saints

say a sight of

God happens

in a moment,

the beat of

a moth's wings:

fold and open