Elegy for eulogies

by Steven Peterson in the December 29, 2021 issue

Sometimes we were surprised or not but always we felt bad to hear there'll be no funeral no kind of memorial service no way to celebrate those lives beyond a pixeled program on a screen.

All of us did our best but still it seemed like standing at the graves of souls forever marked Unknown.