New today from the Century:

- Our fall books issue's reviews include Walter Brueggemann on Peter Ochs, Robert Bellah on Parker Palmer, Shirley Showalter on Leymah Gbowee and others. (subscription required)
- I review Tori Amos: "While it's hard to imagine many pop artists signing up to write a song cycle based on the history of classical music, for Amos—whom Deutsche Grammophon approached with this idea—the project seems almost inevitable." (subscription required)
- David Lewicki gets a visit from two of Atlanta's occupiers.
- David Heim briefly reviews David Steinmetz, "a senior scholar who can distill his learning in graceful, compact essays."
