

Wednesday digest

July 10, 2013

Subscribe by RSS feed: magazine, blogs, news. See all feeds.

New today from the Century:

- Carolyn Call on how the church fails the divorced: "Divorce is a time when we most need our brothers and sisters in faith. Yet churches and clergy often ignore divorcing people."
- Sarah Barringer Gordon on the other side of religious liberty and same-sex marriage
- Paul-Gordon Chandler reviews James Cowan: "Cowan's book follows the Holy Family's path through Egypt. It is anchored in numerous conversations with monks, nuns, guides and fellow pilgrims."
- Dennis Sanders on what he's learned about evangelical views on homosexuality

In the news:

- Catholic hospitals at odds with bishops over birth control mandate