

Episode 58: Oscars recap

February 26, 2019

Old Oscar

As part of their yearly tradition, Matt and Adam reflect on the 2019 Academy Awards and the year in filmmaking. Besides discussing favorite moments, the guys discuss the merits of Green Book and the absence of Spike Lee within the history of the Academy Awards.

Finally, in an effort to reach a broader audience (among other things) the name of the podcast is going to change. The subscriptions won't be affected and we will still be working with the Christian Century, but the name and artwork of the show will change before the next episode on March 11. The new name will be...

"Sunday Morning Matinee"

Stay tuned for new and interesting things happening in the near future as a result of this new direction
