

Summer Musings

How small the life with space for only what I know or can find with certainty by moving just one finger on a surface.

I want to cast away every instrument of instant answers to enter mystery, that place that lies in stillness, open to the Spirit.

There I might find room for emptiness, for nothingness, for waiting;
there my heart may watch for waves that rise and fall as on a gentle lake in summer, and there perceive the depths that gather, the movement unrestrained by boundaries, the wild and constant surging into love.
