Revealing the God who lives

“What is the Bible for?” seems an extraordinarily obtuse question, as if it were a how-to book. Stand back! Herein is a word so alive with its author that it is capable of overturning every notion you ever had. On the other hand, you can try reading it as a “text” to be subjected to your superior capabilities, thereby missing the living presence of God who is at work all around you, whether you recognize it or not.
